My Morning at the Hair Salon

Helping children become the brave main character in their story

Scene 1 of 7

On Saturday morning, I visit the hair salon for a haircut.

Scene 2 of 7

I sit in a tall chair that can move up and down.

Scene 3 of 7

The hairdresser wraps a smooth, light cape around my shoulders.

Scene 4 of 7

The hairdresser knows that some children find the feeling of hair touching unusual.

Scene 5 of 7

The silver scissors make a soft snipping sound near my ears.

Scene 6 of 7

I can hold my favorite toy or take a breath while the hairdresser works.

Scene 7 of 7

When my hair is finished, I walk out of the salon with my family.
